Jerri's 3-night trip to Seattle
October 2 - 5, 2015

We've arranged all of your recommendations into 4 suggested Outings.

The details are in the following pages.

(A) Outing: Chihuly Garden & Glass Museum

Go Fri or Mon

Head to Seattle's tourist center to explore many of Seattle's iconic sites and experiences. If the weather cooperates, make sure to check out the outdoor garden area of the Chihuly museum and the culture park.

Tip: Head to the Seattle Center for coffee and snacks.

Chihuly Garden & Glass Museum

The Northwest is known for its glass art. See one of its masters at this newly opened museum that's right next to the Space Needle. <http://www.chihulygardenandglass.com>

Trip Recommendations by zentrrips.co

I recommend you stay in the Pike Place or Pioneer Square neighborhoods. The former is most central to all of your outings. The latter is the most interesting for restaurants and bars.

Here are 3 lodging options I think you'll enjoy:

Inn at Market

Centrally located downtown next to Pike Place market, this is a classic Seattle boutique hotel. Features a gorgeous ivy-covered entry courtyard, and many rooms have views of the Puget Sound

<http://innatthemarket.com/>

typically $399 a night

86 Pine Street
Seattle, WA 98101

Hotel 1000

Often described as the classiest downtown hotel, Hotel 1000 is a modern hero. Centrally located between Pike Place and Pioneer Square. Known as the best Seattle hotel, in the off-season the pricing is a steal.

<http://www.hotel1000seattle.com/>

$229-$400 a night

1000 First Avenue
Seattle, WA 98104

Personal Loft

Pioneer park is the current spot of new shops, restaurants and bars. There are a number of reasonably-priced apartments for rent in the area.

Typically $150-250 a night

Pioneer Square
Seattle, WA
