

Jerri's Activity Ideas

Hi Jerri,

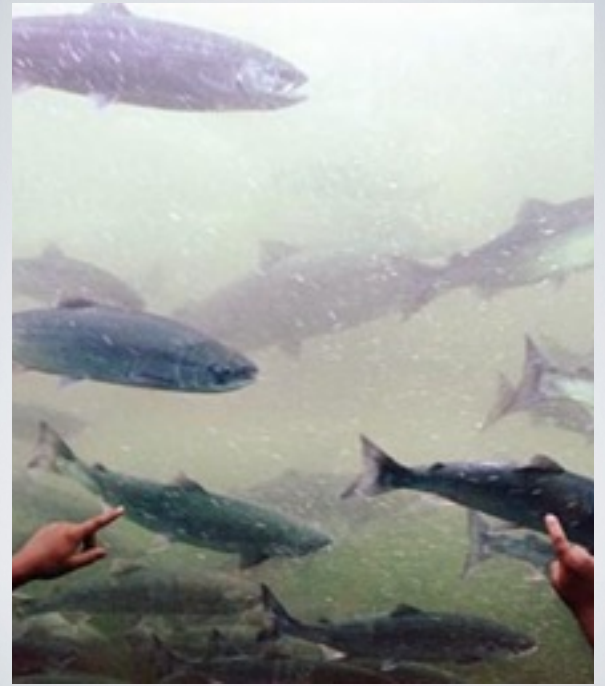

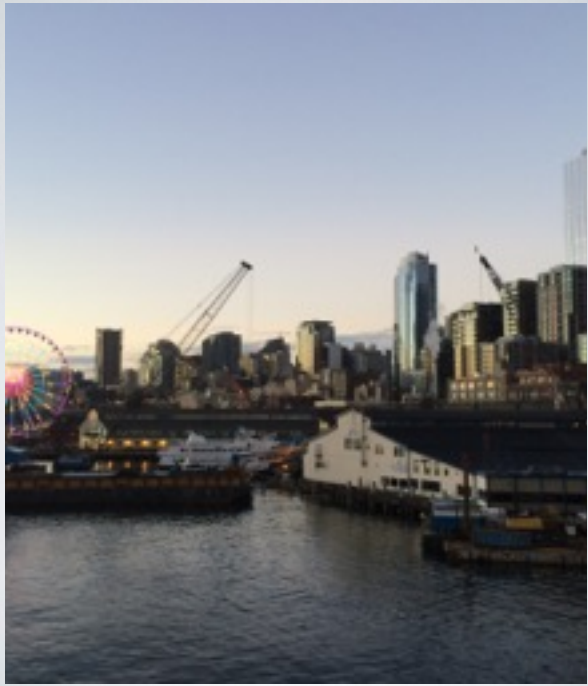

We're glad you picked Seattle to visit. It's a great place to relax, explore, have adventures, and enjoy a variety of gourmet cuisine. Since you're most interesting in seeing Seattle's famous sites, great restaurants and outdoor adventures, I've focused your recommendations around those topics. Seattle is a small city, but it has great food and a big heart. Enjoy your visit!

Rory Everitt

Travel Advisor

Want to ask me questions? Upgrade to a paid itinerary.

Ferry to Bainbridge Island

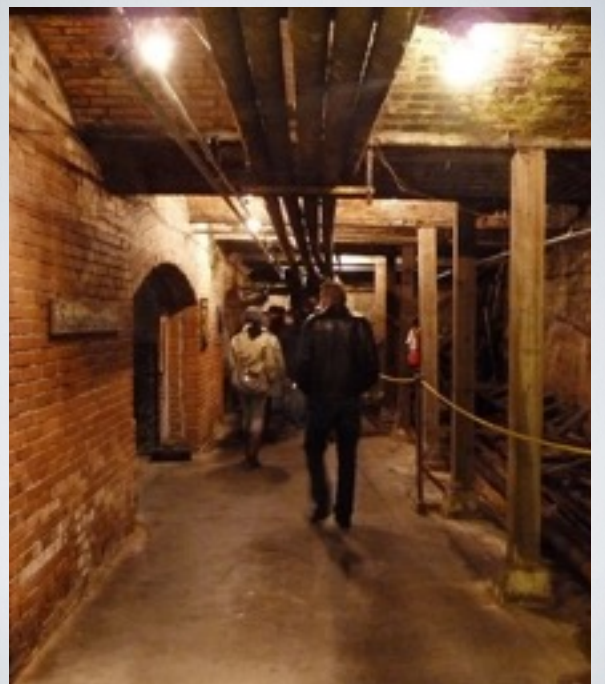

Take a 30 minute ferry ride across the Puget Sound to Bainbridge island. Ferry leaves from downtown Seattle and the town of Winslow is a half mile walk on the other end.
<https://www.bainbridgeisland.com/ferry>

Seattle Aquarium

Water plays a huge role in the ecology and lifestyle of Seattle. Learn about it first hand at this small but well-done aquarium.
<http://www.seattleaquarium.org>

Ballard Locks & Fish Ladder

The locks separate Lake Union from the Puget Sound. Watch boats above ground, then head underground to view salmon swimming through the fish ladder.
<http://www.myballard.com/ballard-locks-seattle/>

Chihuly Glass Museum

The Northwest is known for its glass art. See one of its masters at this newly opened museum that's right next to the Space Needle.
<http://www.chihulygardenandglass.com>

Northwest Outdoor Center

Rent a kayak to paddle around Lake Union. A great way to appreciate Seattle's beauty at eye-level.
<http://www.nwoc.com>

Underground Seattle Tour

After a major fire in the city, people simply re-built on top of buildings. The actual city of Seattle starts 2 stories below ground. This fascinating tour is unique and beloved by locals too.
<http://undergroundtour.com>

Savor Seattle Food Tour

Famous for their small group tour of Pike Place Market. Be led to the best stalls in the market. This is a food tour even the locals like.

<http://www.savorseattletours.com>

Starbucks Reserve

Check out Starbucks new flagship store. Their entry into the super high-end coffee experience.

<http://roastery.starbucks.com>

Zeitgeist Coffee

Airy cafe with an industrial vibe. Serves up coffee, pastries and local art.

<http://zeitgeistcoffee.com>

Seattle Japanese Garden

At the entrance to the Washington Park Arboretum, this beautiful and serene garden is worth a stop.

<http://www.seattlejapanese garden.org>

Holy Mountain Brewery

The taproom was opened within the last year with a modern aesthetic and fantastic beers. Some even think their IPA, Astral Projection, rivals Pliny the Elder.

<http://holymountainbrewing.com/>

Zig Zag Cafe

Classy out-of-the-way place just a few blocks from Pike Place. Low lit, small, intimate. Features craft cocktails made by true experts. Great Happy Hour.

<http://zigzagseattle.com>

Our travel advisors help you plan all the details

Now that you have a sense of what you might want to do in Seattle, we can help you assemble all of the nitty-gritty details. We do all the research for you, making it super simple to enjoy your trip.

For $15, upgrade to a custom itinerary:

- * See your full list of ideas, all plotted on an interactive map
- * Get suggested outings: e.g. Monday morning, go to this neighborhood and do these 3 things there
- * Get costs, opening hours, addresses and local tips for every idea
- * Receive great lodging and dining ideas nearby the things you want to do
- * Ask your advisor questions
- * Add new ideas to your itinerary and remove ones that no longer interest you

Rory Everitt

Travel Advisor

Want to ask me questions? Upgrade to a paid itinerary.

