Local Guide

Hi Alex,

I'm excited for you to visit Aarhus for your 3 day getaway. That's the perfect amount of time to visit this smaller city and you're going to go back to regular life very rested!

March is a quieter time in Aarhus. While it limits some of the available activities, there are still plenty of museums, cafes, and city streets to enjoy. Many locals recommend simply walking around as a way to get acquainted. Since you said you love culture, history, food, and some site-seeing, I've focused your trip recommendations around a couple of gems. Budget lodging in the city is a little more expensive than elsewhere in Denmark, but you'll find the other recommended activities can keep your total cost down.

The city is pretty small and walkable. So you can stay anywhere downtown and be fine (and safe) for getting around. Here are a few lower-cost spots you might especially enjoy.

Cabinn Hotel

Centrally located, clean, and quiet. A great standard for low-cost hotels. All rooms have private bath, toilet, telephone, TV and kettle with free tea and coffee. Have a breakfast cafe and parking spaces available.

625 DKK a night for 2 people

Kannikegade 14
8000 Aarhus

86 75 70 00

City Sleep In

This is the hostel that locals recommend to their friends. For backpackers and budget-minded travelers. A stone's throw from the Cathedral of Aarhus, Aarhus river, the Latin Quarter and in walking distance to Railway Station and Bus Terminal.

450 DKK a night for 2 people

Havnegade 20
8000 Aarhus

86 19 20 55

Mollestein Cottage

A set of 2 charming cottages on the most picturequese street in the whole city. The ground floor has a kitchen, a bathroom and a living room and there is a bedroom on the 1st floor with a double bed. This is a superb option for being super cute and cozy.

While you're here, I recommend these trip highlights for you:

Aarhus Arts Convention

The biggest arts and culture festival in Northern Europe, taking place April 1 -5. Experience several of the world's leading graffiti painters and tattoo artists. Includes tattoo seminars, tattoo convention, graffiti festival and art exhibitions.

Tip: Online tickets appear to be aimed at exhibitors, but general public should be able to buy tickets at the door.

Activity

Godsbanen
Skovgaardsgade 3,
8000 Aarhus C,

Moesgaard Museum

Moesgaard Museum is a regional museum and a dedicated museum for archaeology and ethnography, situated in Højbjerg, a suburb of Aarhus.

Adults (18 and over) 110 DKK
Students (with current student ID) 90 DKK

Tip: Don't miss some of the best preserved people from the Bronze Age, who were buried in oak coffins in Borum Eshøj near Aarhus.

Activity

Tuesday 10 – 5
Wednesday 10 – 9
Thursday - Sunday
10 – 5
Monday closed

How to get there

You can also ride bikes along a trail.

Suppestegosis

A nice little restaurant by the canal. Nice atmosphere, reasonable prices, and frequented by locals. Walk along the canal before or after dinner.

Tip: If the weather is nice, they have ample outdoor seating. If the weather is not so nice, you can still sit outside - they give you blankets!

Food

Åboulevarden 82,
8000 Århus

If you have time, I suggest you also try these fun activities:

Haute Friture

Haute Friture sells gourmet fast food at reasonable prices. The menu is short and sweet with rotisserie chicken, porchetta, chips, and Lecoq dogs for between 25 and 100 DKK as well as a dish of the day for 65 DKK.

Tip: Open 12pm - 8pm every day.

Food

Graven 16
8000 Aarhus
Denmark

S'vinbar

New shop and wine bar. Relaxing vibe. They have more than 250 different wines on the map, most of which are served by the glass. Glass prices are 50 - 140 DKK.

Tip: Open 3pm - midnight. Closed Sunday and Monday.

Drink

Klostergade 62
8000 Aarhus

72 20 66 20

VW Cafe

A lovely spot for coffee, tea, hot chocolate and sandwiches. Highly recommended by the locals.

Tip: For breakfast, try the Danish way of coffee and bread at nearby Emmery's or Schweizer Bageriet.

Food

Thorvaldsensgade 17
8000 Aarhus

22 85 80 04

Your Rainbow Panorama

A permanent art installation atop the roof of the Aros art museum. See 360 degree views of Aarhus through different colored panes of glass. Not to be missed!

Tip: Closed Monday. Open Tuesday and Wednesday 10 - 5

Activity

RoS ALLÉ 2
8000 AARHUS

87 30 66 00

Den Gamle By (Old Town)

Open air museum of Danish cultural history. Like Williamsburg, VA they have period characters manning actual shops and buildings you can walk in to. Definitely worth the price of admission, and very well done.

Tip: check out the new 1974 section.

Activity

Viborgvej 2
8000 Aarhus C

Open 10 - 5pm
135 DKK

Møllestien Road

Many people love simply walking around Aarhus. This is a small picturesque cobblestone street with old houses. Unlike Den Gamle By, people actually live here.

Activity

Møllestien 50
8000 Aarhus

South: Moesgaard Museum
